Story Starter Cards

Each of these Story Starter cards contains a first line that you can use to help you write your own story. You can also play a story game with family and friends. Cut out the cards and place them face down. Have each person take a turn by picking up a card and using it to make up a story right on the spot! There are no winners or losers—just great tales!

began when...

My wish had come true!
Now I was...

from far away. As we got closer, we realized...
